

F.A.O. Key Stage Coordinators, Geography/Humanities Subject Leaders, Key Stage 1 and 2 class teachers, NQTs and trainee teachers

Do you teach the topic 'invaders/explorers'?

Would you like to meet/link up with a real-life explorer, scientist or researcher?

How might you teach about cold environments in a more cross-curricular way?

Why not look at teaching and learning from a slightly different perspective, yet still enhance pupils' knowledge and understanding of the continents of Europe and North America?

Are you keen to increase pupils' awareness of the rising temperatures and shrinking ice within the Arctic, firm evidence that global warming is really happening?

If the answer to any of the above questions is 'yes' and you missed previous events, then why not come along to one of our Wicked Weather Watch CPD workshops:

Led by Emma Espley (www.create2inspire.co.uk) who is a freelance consultant, Geography Champion/Teacher Consultant with the Geographical Association; approved Global Learning Programme CPD provider; approved provider of support for individuals/schools with Gloucestershire County Council and experienced teacher.

The session aims to:

- 'unpick' the National Curriculum Programme of Study for Geography at Key Stages 1 and 2 and highlight how and where such teaching and learning fits in;
- showcase a contemporary scheme of work entitled Let's go on an awesome Arctic Adventure and accompanying resources, including many cross-curricular links;
- give you the opportunity to network with teachers from other schools (to share best practice and establish future rapport);
- provide you with a number of invaluable web-links and free resources, plus time built in to explore these and ask questions/seek advice.

The cost of the session is £75.00 per person, with refreshments provided upon arrival and throughout the morning.

Reservations can be made by contacting Vicky Oram-Ahern on schools@wickedweatherwatch.org.uk or 07855 964625.

Early booking is recommended as places are limited.

Free Wi-Fi access will be available. You will find it useful to have a laptop/tablet and a memory stick to hand for the session.

Please do not hesitate to contact us if you have any additional questions.
